EVENT INFORMATION

ANDBike is Andorra's new cycling festival, located in the heart of La Massana, a paradise for cycling lovers.

ANDBike was born with the aim of becoming a meeting point for cyclists, brands, professionals in the sector and cycling enthusiasts, in a privileged natural environment.

The festival will feature a large expo area where attendees can discover the latest in bicycles, accessories, sports nutrition and more, as well as try out products on demobike routes.

There will be activities for all audiences, including exhibitions, organized outings at different levels, talks on sustainability and cycling, concerts and a gastronomic offer with food trucks.

The Ciclo Andorra – La Massana is a road cycling tour held in Andorra as part of the ANDBike festival. It brings together cyclists of all levels to enjoy a sporting day in a privileged mountain environment.

The race offers several routes with different distances and passes, which pass through some of the best-known roads in the country, such as the Coll d'Ordino or the Collada de Beixalís. This allows it to be adapted to both amateur participants and more experienced cyclists.

In addition to the sporting aspect, it stands out for its festive atmosphere and the combination of cycling and nature, making it a complete experience within the Pyrenees cycling calendar.

June 20 - Departure: 9:00 am (Plaça de les Fontetes).
